- The main items which the Chinese Communists shipped via Kwangsi from 1 March to 15 April 1952 to aid the Democratic Republic of Vietnam were industrial machines and agricultural implements. Military weapons, ammunition, and other military supplies showed a marked decrease.
- 2. The following materials were shipped into Vietnam via Lungchou (106-56, 22-22) and Chennanktan (106-42, 21-58):
 - a. 340 tons of industrial equipment, including various kinds of machine tools, supplies and raw materials for steel-making and building construction.
 - b. 200 tons of spinning and weaving industrial raw materials. About 30 percent of this was cloth.
 - c. 5 tons of medical supplies.
 - d. 400 tons of food supplies, chiefly soy beans, maize and flour.
